States Update
California:
- California recently passed Non-Revocable Parole law. This law will affect an estimated 20,000 cases in the state of California, but the impact on Interstate Compact will be very limited.

Colorado:
- The Compact Office hired new staff members.
- The Compact Office provides ICOTS and Rules trainings to its filed officers.
- L. Zorn requested literature on ADAAA from the Region members.

Hawaii:
- Hawaii will send their furlough days to the National Office to post them on the commission website.

New Mexico:
- New Mexico’s Legislature is in special session.
- All New Mexico’s furlough days are on the Commission website.

Nevada:
- Nevada Southern Command Compact Office is moving to a different location.

Oregon:
- Denise Sitler is no longer with the Compact Office.
- Oregon reported that Dawn Persels is the new Deputy Compact Administrator.

Utah:
- Utah is operating on a four-day work schedule.
- Legislature session is currently in progress
- J. Ingle asked states that require lifetime sex-offender supervision to contact him.

Approved on 5/4/2010. B.S.
Executive Director H. Hageman informed J. Ingle that the sex-offender supervision requirements are on the Commission website under state pages.

Washington:
- Commissioner L. Miller informed the Region that the Washington Compact Office works about 40 extra hours a week just responding to media regarding the Clemmons case.
- Washington legislature session is in progress.

Montana:
- Montana is working on its State Council membership
- The Governor is working on the state’s budget

New Business
Commissioner E. Gonzales (NM) suggested the Region members to join the Ad Hoc Dues Committee. Commissioner B. Butcher (UT) volunteered to serve on this Committee.

The West Region will meet again on May 4, 2010 at 1 pm EDT.

Adjourn
The meeting was adjourned at 1:37 pm EST.
