Welcome and introduction by Chair Robert Sanders and ICOAS Commissioner Keven Pellant. Others in attendance were Ellen Mitchell, Saline County Attorney; Jalynn Coop, Governor’s Office; Lucy Mills; Representative Charles Roth; Senator Ralph Ostmeyer; Kimberly Schwant, Deputy Compact Administrator; Chris Rieger, Parole Manager; and Marie McNeal, Administrator of Kansas Parole Board.

Keven presented Notice of Public Hearing rule changes. She handed out the annual report. Discussion was made regarding dues and fees; is the compact solvent? Keven and Kimberly Schwant will be attending the National meeting next week. Keven (and the state of Kansas) had nominated Jennie Marsh Director of Office of Victim’s Services for the 2009 Peyton Tuthill award. Jennie won the award and will be recognized at the National meeting. Discussion about victim services and how it benefits the compact office and general public.

Interstate Case Management and Risk Reduction: Keven Pellant discussed KS is on the forefront of case management. Supervising officers look at the aspects of an offender’s life and what is best of the offender to be successful. Keven explained there is discussion between the states regarding home plans and how that affects the offender success.

ICOTS (Interstate Compact Offender Tracking System): Kimberly Schwant and Keven Pellant conducted a power point presentation and live demonstration of the Interstate Compact Offender Tracking System (ICOTS). Keven explained that ICAOS has an IT committee that reviews suggestions to the system and then prioritizes those based on a national perspective.

Training and Overview: Kimberly Schwant presented an overview of training reports, audits and data collection submitted to ICAOS each month as required by the rules.

Interstate issues included statue outlines of those who are appointed to the council. It was recommended that the council submit a congratulations letter to Jennie and have recognized by the council in person at the next meeting.
